Hi Bill, Happy New Year. We can accept/waive service for Match Group LLC and Humor Rainbow provided they're afforded a reasonable extension to file a responsive pleading (i.e., 60 days under FRCP 4). Regarding mechanics of changing the parties, do you intend filing a motion to substitute parties or refile the complaint against the new parties? Please let us know.

Hi Erik,

We will amend to name the parties. As for venue, it is proper in WDTX.

Please let us know if you will accept service for the renamed entities.

Thanks,

Bill

Hi Bill –

Thanks again for getting that extension on file. I just wanted to touch base regarding the appropriate parties and venue for the case. As you know from prior cases (e.g., NetSoc v. Match), the proper Match entity here should be Match Group, LLC rather than Match Group, Inc. (“MGI”). MGI is a Match holding company, and does not operate the accused Tinder or OkCupid apps. Instead, Match Group, LLC operates Tinder, and Humor Rainbow, Inc. operates OkCupid. Given that the proper defendants are Match Group, LLC and Humor Rainbow, Inc., venue is not proper in WDTX. Neither has any presence in WDTX, let alone any regular and established place of business in WDTX. Instead, the appropriate venue for both of these defendants would be NDTX—where both are headquartered.

In light of the above, please let us know if you are amenable to amending the complaint to name the proper parties and transferring the case to NDTX, as was done in NetSoc v. Match. Happy to discuss what would be the most efficient way to accomplish this.

Thanks,
Erik

Hi Erik,

It is good to hear from you. Yes, we are amenable to a 45-day.

Bill

Hi Bill –

I hope you had a great Thanksgiving. Would you be able to file the attached unopposed motion for extension of time and proposed order before the 12/2 deadline? Also, given a 30 day extension would land on New Year's, would you be amenable to a 45 day extension instead? Happy to discuss if needed.

Thanks,
Erik

Hi Robert,

I trust you and your family have as great holiday season.

A 30-day extension is fine.

Thanks,

Bill

Hi Bill –

NRF has been retained by Match Group in the above referenced matter. Match Group's responsive pleading deadline is December 2, 2022. Does Street Spirit oppose a 30 day extension?

Please let us know.

I hope the holidays are treating you well so far, and that you have a Happy Thanksgiving.

Best,

--Robert
